Commissioner for Patents

The disc artifact requested by the Board of Appeals and Interferences could not be located after a search of the paper file wrapper. The examiner believes the disc to contain a PLUS search containing 100 United States Patents numbers for patent which use similar words/terms as the specification and claims of the present application, as determined by a computer program. The results of the PLUS search was attached to the file wrapper along with the disc, but were never provided to the applicant or made of record in the application. The application has been returned to the Board of Appeals and Interferences. No action is required of the Appellant at this time.
